Training Course on
Forging Pathways to Gender Equality in Statistical Leadership

Table of Contents

Section	Title	PAGE
1	Module One: Overview of the Course
1-1	Module Objectives
1-2	Agenda for First Day of Training Course
1-3	Course Overview
1-3-1	Why: Vision, Goal and Objectives
1-3-2	Who are the targeted participants? Who should be there?
1-3-3	How: The Strategy, Design and Approach of the Course
2	Module Two: Universal concepts and issues and the global picture of gender, gender equality and women's empowerment
2-1	Module Objectives
2-2	Agenda for Module 2
2-3	Setting the stage
2-3-1	Icebreaker!
2-3-2	Looking closer: Survey of 13,300 National Statistical Office (NSO) Employees in 14 Latin American and Caribbean Countries
2-4	Gender, gender equality, gender parity, women's empowerment and gender issues: an overview
2-4-1	The Basics: Defining Gender, Gender Equality, Gender Parity and Women's Empowerment
2-4-2	Gender issues targeted in the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
2-4-3	Gender issues related to leadership and global policy instruments that address these
2-5	Understanding gender gaps in leadership positions
2-5-1	A quick look at data that reveal gender disparities in leadership
2-5-2	Gender disparities in leadership—the WHYS: Debate this!
2-5-3	Explaining gender gaps in leadership
2-6	Women's Empowerment: Aiming for Gender Parity in Leadership
2-6-1	Improving gender parity in the UN: An illustration of how to go about it in an organization
2-6-2	Improving gender parity: How NOT to go about it
2-7	Supplementary Materials
3	National Context – Gender Issues

Section	Title	PAGE
3-1	Module Objectives
3-2	Agenda for Module 3
3-3	Preparatory Activities for Topics 1 and 2
3-3-1	For Topic 1: National Women's Machinery Representative (as trainer)
3-3-2	For Topic 2: National Statistics Office (as trainer)
3-4	Group Reflection: How gender issues affect opportunities for women in leadership roles in the country
3-5	Summary of the Group Reflection
4	Module 4: Why is it important to have women leaders?
4-1	Module Objectives
4-2	Agenda for Module 4
4-3	What research says on the importance of women leaders
4-3-1	Improved decision-making
4-3-2	Enhanced motivation
4-3-3	Better problem-solving
4-3-4	Increased employee engagement
4-3-5	Effective policies
4-3-6	Transparency and trust
4-3-7	Risk management
4-3-8	Organizational reputation
4-4	National context—Why is it important to have women leaders in the NSO/NSS?
4-4-1	Scenario 1: Decision-making
4-4-2	Scenario 2: Data collection and quality
4-4-3	Scenario 3: Stakeholder engagement
4-4-4	Scenario 4: Workplace culture and inclusivity
4-4-5	Scenario 5: Policy formulation and implementation
5	Module 5: Assessing gender 'mainstreaming in the NSO and NSS
5-1	Module Objectives
5-2	Agenda for Module 5
5-3	Gender gaps in statistical leadership and why—What the data tell us
5-3-1	Organizational hierarchy levels
5-3-2	Reasons for gender gaps in senior leadership positions
5-4	Enabling Environment for Gender Equality in Statistical Leadership

Section	Title	PAGE
5-4-1	Statistics Law—What provisions does it have to promote gender equality in statistical leadership?
5-4-2	NSDS—What strategies does it have to promote gender equality in statistical leadership?
5-5	State of gender statistics in the country: Is there a 'correlation' between women in leadership and state of gender statistics? How and why?
5-5-1	Contents
5-5-2	Training modalities
6	Module 6: Action planning for "growing" women leaders in NSO/NSS organizations
6-1	Module Objectives
6-2	Agenda for Module 6
6-3	Barriers to Gender Equality in Women's Leadership in Statistical Organizations/Units
6-3-1	Contents
6-3-2	Training activity: Reflections by participants on barriers to women's leadership in statistical organizations/units
6-4	Assessment Tools
6-5	Matching Barriers to Strategies/Actions
6-5-1	Contents
6-5-2	Training activity: Reflections by participants on challenges in designing strategies for growing women leaders in statistical organizations
7	Capstone Project Development
7-1	Module Objectives
7-2	Capstone Project Development Work Plan
7-2-1	Key Tasks
7-2-2	Work Plan
7-3	Capstone Project Document
8	Module 8: Capstone Launch
8-1	Module Objective
8-2	Agenda for Module 8
8-3	Description of Agenda Activities	