You’re invited to join UN Women’s Regional Webinar on the Production and Use of Disaggregated Gender Statistics to Leave No One Behind in Asia and the Pacific. The webinar will provide hands-on guidance on how to conduct multi-level data disaggregation utilizing the Counted and Visible Toolkit.

Counted and Visible: Producing and Using Disaggregated Gender Statistics to Leave No One Behind

WHEN
Thursday, 09 December 2021
09:00-10:30am Bangkok time / 02:00-03:30pm Fiji time

TOPICS AND SPEAKERS

- Moderator: Sara Duerto Valero, Gender Statistics Specialist, UN Women Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific
- General overview of the Counted and Visible Toolkit
  Jessamyn Encarnacion, Inter-Regional Advisor on Gender Statistics, Women Count Programme, UN Women
- Viet Nam: NSS leadership’s commitment and development of national priority gender equality indicators (NPGEIs) for disaggregation
  Nga Nguyen, Vietnam’s General Statistics Office (tbc)
- Mongolia: Production of disaggregated gender statistics
  Amarbal Avrimed, Mongolia’s National Statistics Office (tbc)
- Assessment and publication of disaggregated gender statistics
  Zita VJ Albacea, Consultant, Counted and Visible Toolkit
- Kenya: Dissemination, communication, advocacy and use of disaggregated gender statistics
  Sylvia Maina, Reporting & Communications Consultant, UN Women East and Southern Africa

JOIN
Register in advance for this webinar:
https://unwomen.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_fju4cfS5RTWFy99yaBjPAQ
After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.
If you have any questions, please contact: Rotcharek Limkitisupasin r.limkitisupasin@unwomen.org and Alper Gucumengil alper.gucumengil@unwomen.org